

sensus

RÄTTIGHETSCENTRUM NORRBOTTEN (CENTRE FOR RIGHTS NORRBOTTEN) IS AN ANTI-DISCRIMINATION BUREAU AIMING TO PREVENT AND COUNTERACT DISCRIMINATION AND TO PROMOTE DIVERSITY.

We:

- advice and support persons who consider themselves discriminated (free of charge)
- increase skills and competence related to anti-discrimination and pluralism, through lectures, seminars and trainings
- raise awareness and advocate through various kinds of events, often in cooperation with other organisations

Do you and your organisation want to know more about pluralism, equal rights and discrimination?

Contact us for more information. We provide norm critical training and facilitate processes to improve the way you can prevent discrimination and work for pluralism, inclusion and equality within your organisation.

Are you discriminated?

You are welcome to contact Rättighetscentrum Norrbotten if you have experienced discrimination. We can provide advice and support to determine whether you have been discriminated in violation of the law. If this is the case, we can assist you to address the problem. There are different options including mediation to settle the issue locally or formal complaints to the Equality Ombudsman or other suitable office.

Confidentiality

If you contact us for advice and support, the information you share with us remains confidential. We will never share information about you without your approval.

SEVEN GROUNDS OF DISCRIMINATION:

sensus

Sensus Studieförbund is the principal of Rättighetscentrum Norrbotten. We are financed by the Swedish Agency for Youth and Civil Society (MUCF), Region Norrbotten, and the municipalities of Luleå and Piteå.

Contact:

rattighetscentrum.norrbotten@sensus.se
Phone: 0920-25 99 81, 0920-25 99 85
www.rattighetscentrum.se
www.facebook.com/SensusRCN